“ I am thankful God placed Aunt Ada Pearl in my family and I have fond memories of her even though I did not see her often. When I was a boy we would visit the Bagley side of the family each year from out-of-state. She always made time to come over to Granny Bagley's with Tim to spend time with us when we were in town - even on weekdays when Uncle Monroe was working. She liked to talk and loved to laugh and I enjoyed listening to her. During our annual week in Georgia, we were invited to spend one afternoon at Monroe and Ada Pearl's place and stay for dinner - so I learned that she was a great hostess and a fantastic cook. I also loved the drawer of candy bars that she would open up to treat us! Great childhood memories from a special person.

It is comforting to know that she knows the Lord Jesus and her Savior and I look forward to seeing her again someday.

“ Dear Tim, Molly, and Buddy,

I am so very sorry that my dear sister-in-law has passed, and hope you are comforted like I am in knowing that she believed in Jesus as her savior and is now in His glorious presence. Ada Pearl and I were neighbors and grew up together. Then in 1958 we became sister-in-laws when she married my oldest brother, Monroe. She has always been like a sister to me and was always gracious and hospitable whenever I went back home to visit family. I will greatly miss her and the frequent phone calls we shared across the many miles that parted us, as we enjoyed keeping in touch. I love her dearly. May God rest her soul and may He bless all of her family.
