“ So sorry for what you, Gail and Family, I remember meeting this gentle man the same day as I met my future husband, John Earl, and their best friend Gary Kenneth Hutchinson. We were neighbors but both families were busy with their own family life . John Earl and Laverne often had their visits near an area they had business to attend to or speaking in passing when they had to be somewhere else. I know they shared many childhood memories of playing in the creek as young boys growing up. Laverne was a gentle spirit who was always working. You could that he loved his wife and his children very much. Our thoughts and prayers are with this family .
