“ Dad we havent always all seen eye to eye, but you and I had our own bond that no one else could understand I'll miss you, but I know your in a better place I hate to think about it to much because missing you comes in waves and there's times I'm ok and times I wanna just cry my eyes out. You and little man were my protectors and I'll always remember the good times and the fishing poles. Thank you for giving me life, a part of me is you and I'll always live in your memory!
