“ There's not a single day that goes by that i don't think of you 😊 I would give nearly anything to have you back & see your smile, even if only for 5 more minutes.. there's so much pain in my heart from the void that was left when you went away 💔. But one of the main things that gives me comfort though, is knowing that you're not in pain anymore 🇺🇸.... You didn't have to take me & my brother and sister in, but you chose to. Even tho we weren't your responsibility, you chose to give us a life & to love us as if we were your own blood children. And even though you were literally fighting for your life against the cancer every single day, i NEVER not even once saw you fall 🏠♂. As if you were perfectly healthy....you made it look so easy 🏠♂... You'll always be one of the top 3 strongest people that i know. And you'll always be my idol, my role model, my example of what it means to be a man... I Love You, Dad. & I miss you so much more than anything. I'd give my last breath right now just to be able to tell you face to face that I Love You & give you one last hug 🏠. I'll always cherish the memories that God allowed us to make/have with you.. You'll always be in my heart & mind! I Love You so much.. we will always miss you, but i guess God needed you back.. So until we meet again 💜 rest in paradise daddy 😊🙏
