“ So many great memories of Uncle DH. As a young fellow, he taught me to love fishing, love boiled peanuts, and love Skippy. I can still remember how when he would open the trunk of his car it would be full of fishing poles and bait. And, most of the time there would be a Skippy sitting on the armrest of the car ready to go fishing.. He always had a story to tell and always seemed interested in what you had going on in your own life. He was a blessing in my mothers life, *(Virginia) - (Jenny) as he called her and I will always be grateful. It was a blessing to be his nephew. May God Bless the family and give them peace..
