

Donald "Don" Edward Moore

January 1, 1950 - March 19, 2026

Mr. Donald "Don" Edward Moore, age 76, of Broxton, Georgia, passed away Thursday morning, March 19, 2026, at Coffee Regional Medical Center following a recent illness.

Don was born January 1, 1950, in Blakley, Georgia, to the late John Edward Moore and the late Beatrice Baston Moore. He made his career as a truck driver for Charlie Wooten Trucking and was of the non-denominational faith. Along with his parents, Don was preceded in death by a brother, Kenny Moore.

Don leaves behind three children: Damon Moore and companion, Rena Newsome, of Nichols, Georgia, Joey Moore and wife, Amanda, of New York, and Kristy M. Gross and husband, Andy, of Douglas, Georgia; five grandchildren: Kerstin Bryant, Jorja Bryant, Rylen Gross, Benton Moore, and Bryan Egleston; a brother, Gary Moore and wife, Linda, of the Philippines; four sisters: Tammy M. Ray, Jan M. Burns and Linda M Watford, all of Auburndale, Florida, and Sandy Crews, also of Florida; and long time companion, Kathe Moore; along with a number of nieces, nephews and extended family members.

Don will be memorialized by cremation, and no services are scheduled for him at this time.

Condolences, kind words and fond memories may be shared with Don's family at www.ricketsonfuneralhome.com.

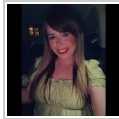

Don's arrangements have been entrusted to the kind and compassionate staff of Ricketson Funeral Home, Inc. of Douglas, Georgia.

“ Kathy Moore, as Don's wife for forever, I'll not question why you were not mentioned here. But know that mentioned or not , we are praying for you and that Jesus never forgot the widows. Jesus sees it all , He sees you, and you are not forgotten. We love you.

Thank you Margaret. It hurts to see she wasn't included. I mean they were together for 59 years. But we can thank Kristi for that
