

Doris Tanner

October 5, 1941 - November 8, 2012

Mrs. Doris Clarice Ellis Tanner, age 71, of Jacksonville, Florida, passed away early Thursday morning, November 8, 2012, at the Jacksonville Nursing and Rehab Center in Jacksonville, Florida. Mrs. Tanner, a native of Jeff Davis County, was a former Cashier with Pantry Pride Food Chain. She was the daughter of the late Joe Lee Ellis and the late Pearl Eva Burkett Ellis. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Joel Tanner, and 2 brothers, J. W. Ellis, and Donnie Paul Ellis. Survivors include: 2 Sons: Joel Tanner of Jacksonville, Florida, and Steven Tanner of St. Mary's, Georgia, 2 Grandsons, 4 Granddaughters, 1 Sister: Nina Ellis Bookout of Douglas, Georgia, 1 Sister-In-Law: Annis Ellis of Savannah, Georgia, Several Nieces, Nephews, Friends, and Other Relatives. Funeral Services were held Saturday, November 10, 2012, at 11:00 A.M., at the West Ward Street Church of God, with the Rev. Britt Peavy Officiating. The Interment followed in the Douglas City Cemetery. Active Pallbearers were: Jimmy Wayne Brown, Darrell Bookout, Steven Shay Tanner, Floyd Tanner, Donnie Joe Ellis, and John Ellis. Honorary Pallbearers were: Verlon Harper, Ellis Graham, Ronnie Graham, David Tanner, and Ernie Nettles. Special Musical Selections, "Beulah Land", presented by the Soloist and Pianist, Rev. Britt Peavy, "Serenaded By Angels", and "Look What I've Traded For A Mansion", were presented by CD Music. "Pre-Lude" and "Post-Lude" soft hymns were rendered by CD Music. If you would like to sign the Guestbook, please go Online to www.ricketsonfuneralhome.com. Ricketson Funeral Home was in charge of the Arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Doris Tanner

November 08, 2022 at 06:41 PM