

Faye Taylor Schoppee

July 30, 1942 - March 30, 2026

Mrs. Faye Taylor Schoppee, age 83, passed away Monday, March 30, 2026, at the Landings of Douglas where she resided with her husband of almost 63 years, Ronald Schoppee.

Faye was born July 30, 1942, in Alma, Georgia, to the late Oswell Taylor and the late Gladys Tanner Taylor. Over the course of her working life, she spent time as a telephone operator in Jacksonville, Florida, where she developed a lifelong bond with four other ladies that shared a home and profession with her. She and her husband Ronald made their home on a lovely farm in Ellsworth, Maine, where together they raised their three children, and she achieved her greatest accomplishment as a loving wife and mother. They later owned and operated The Vineyard Christian Book Store in Ellsworth, Maine for 13 years. In 1998 Faye and Ronald moved to Douglas, Georgia to enjoy their retirement years, where she continued to keep herself busy as a paraprofessional and substitute teacher specializing in early childhood and special needs education. Her love for Jesus was demonstrated in her love for children. Across her life she served for more than 60 years teaching children about Jesus as a Sunday School teacher at a number of churches, including Ellsworth Assembly of God in Ellsworth, Maine. To the many children she poured into she was affectionately known as their beloved "Teacher Faye". After their move to Douglas, she became an active member of College Avenue Baptist Church where she continued to share Jesus with adults and children alike through Sunday School and Children's Church. Along with her parents, Faye was preceded in death by seven siblings: Laverne Carter, Lutricel Taylor, Marlow Taylor, Johnny Taylor, Eugene Taylor, Billy Taylor, Quillion Taylor; a special cousin, Connie Marston; and her beloved grandmother-in-law, Ruth Valentine Schoppee.

Faye is survived by her husband of almost 63 years, Ronald Schoppee of Douglas, Georgia, three children: Tasha Schoppee of Jacksonville, Florida, James Schoppee of Douglas, Georgia, and Glen Schoppee of Douglas, Georgia; one brother, Ray Taylor (Sheila) of Alma, Georgia; a number of nieces, nephews, and extended family members; her very best friend, Joy Roberson of Douglas, Georgia; and her special friends in the Ruth-Naomi Sunday School Class at College Avenue Baptist Church, Douglas, Georgia.

Per her request, Faye will be memorialized by cremation, and a celebration of her life will be held on Thursday, April 2, 2026, at 1:00 PM at College Avenue Baptist Church with Rev. Jimmy Littlejohn and Chaplin Dr. Jewrell Rivers officiating.

Condolences, kind words and fond memories may be shared with Faye's family at www.ricketsonfuneralhome.com.

Faye's arrangements have been entrusted to the kind and compassionate staff of Ricketson Funeral Home, Inc. of Douglas, Georgia.

“ Faye was very instrumental in helping Ellsworth Assembly to survive and grow in our critical early years. She loved the church and if someone asked about churches, she directed them our way. We are still blessed by her doing that. As her pastor, we saw how she showed a depth of faith in a number of hardships. She and Ron had the whole church over to their place many times for cookouts. They were so dear to us that the first time I drove past their old home after they moved, I broke down crying. Then, for about a year I drove the long way around to avoid the tears. She taught all the kids and they loved her. Lord, give us more like her!

“ Faye was such a kind, patient, and talented lady. She always made me feel welcome in her home. I have many fond memories being there with Tasha. Faye was a very good seamstress and made me a gown or two. She introduced me to chocolate crinkles which are still a favorite. My deepest sympathies go out to Ron, Tasha, Jimmie, and Glen.
