“ Wayne, Lisa, Janet and Kevin,

Condolences and prayers for each of you and the whole family at this time of mourning your beloved wife and mother. She was a very kind and gracious Southern lady who will always be loved by each of you and remembered fondly by all who knew her. I know there is peace in knowing she was a great Christian who is now with our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

It has been many, many years but memories of time in Bainbridge are recalled more often than you know.

Blessings to each of you!

“ We moved to Bainbridge in 1965. Our husbands were cousins and that's what first brought us together. Soon we became fast friends. Wayne and Loren golfed and fished together while we were busy tending to our six little ones. During the years we made lots of lasting memories for us and our children as we worked and played along side each other. We laughed a lot and cried some too as the years went by too quickly. She was my dear friend and I will miss her sorely.
