“ What an example of the way life should be lived and shared with others, she was a cousin that stole my heart and I loved her and her precious family. Hazel was a legacy in her own time and she could plant a smile on your face that would last a long time. Rest in peace Hazel for God has promised us a mansion and a place that we can share with our loved ones, see you there when it comes my time! Hugs to Derek,Angela and Rory and their families.
