Howard & my Dad were good friends. They were Ambrose buddies. We used to visit Howard's Daddy Mr. Oliver Smith when we were children and considered him a Grandpa. Fished in their ponds and always had a great time around them. Howard always had a smile on his face which was so welcoming. He will missed greatly. Cling to the memories..

“ Some of the best memories of my childhood were spent with My Uncle Howard. He was like a second father to me. I remember an Easter tradition was cracking our first egg on his head. One year my Mother didn't realize the pilot was out on the stove, so the eggs didn't boil. He was sitting there smiling from ear to ear when the six of us cracked raw and eggs on his head. My Mom was so embarrassed and he was such a good sport about it. I will love him always.

“ They say time heals all wounds. As the family is grieving during this this it is nice to remember the good times that were had. Like fishing at the Little Satilla river, Christmas and Thanksgiving dinners together where we all ate to much, of the men getting together after these dinners to play Pinochle. Howard and Danny helping us on the farm harvesting tobacco and me and my dad helping them on theirs. Let the memories of Uncle Howard be a reminder to us to celebrate life each day so there are good thoughts to be left behind when we depart.
