“ So sorry to hear about the passing of Jerry. He will be missed. I enjoyed the phone calls I would get from him. We would have a lot of laughs. We used to play a lot of poker together, back in the days, and he loved it. He had a big heart. He loved almost everyone. I talked to him a couple of times while he was in the hospital in Douglas. I tried to keep up with how he was doing on Facebook. I can see things, but I cannot respond to them. They have me in Facebook Jail for the next few days. It will be a month this time. They like to lock me up. Furthermore, they don't like for you to tell how sorry most of the Democrats are. However, I can't help it, so they lock me up. Our condolence to the family.
