“ This was a fine man for many year he endured a lot but still keep his head high. This man was my grand father I own him so much. He always found time while i would visit him while he lived in Jacksonville Fl. To take me fishing. That was one thing in life he enjoyed . The years past I have a family of my own but I will always remember the many days we spent fishing together. I never got thechance to say I love you but I hope you knew but until we meet again I know your in good hands I will miss you.
