“ Don Jose was everyone’s grandpa at church. Him and his late wife Doña Anselma were a staple in the Hispanic community of Coffee County. Seeing them at church on a regular basis was something we got accustomed to growing up. Everytime you’d see either one of them they would always great you with a smile, and hug, or a firm handshake, and every now and then a good regañada. He left a big legacy behind and many people who loved him. Rest In Peace and I hope they let you into the pearly gates with your sombrero.
