HE

“ Joe was my brother I will miss him so much. He called my husband Richard “his brother”. He always said he had wanted a brother. I remember when Joe was in first grade. He was so scared he ran away and almost made it home before Mom found him. Mom then asked me to keep an eye on him and check to see if he was okay. I would have been in the 4th or 5th grade. I went to check on him and he was sitting in his desk - just barely - he was always tall - and he had the biggest smile on his face. Ms. Comparine had won him over. He never ran away again. Joe had a good heart and loved to make people laugh. His jokes were corny at times but he loved seeing everyone laugh. I know he’s with Mom and Dad now and at peace. We Love you Joe and wish we could have had more time together!
