

Judy Harper Bryant

April 26, 1954 - October 20, 2021

Mrs. Judy Harper Bryant, age 67 of Broxton, GA went home to join our Lord and Savior, on Wednesday evening, October 20, 2021 at Coffee Regional Medical Center following a short illness. Mrs. Bryant was born April 26, 1954 to Addie Jo Solomon Harper Courson and the late Russell Harper. Other than her father, she was preceded in death by a brother, Harold Harper.

Mrs. Bryant, a native of Coffee County, was affectionately known by many as Miss Judy. Her husband Julian Bryant went home to join the Lord in 2008. Afterwards, she continued to operate their business, The Red Barn in Ocilla, GA until August 2020. In retirement she enjoyed her family and watching women's basketball. She will be remembered for her electric personality as well as her kindness and compassion towards everyone. May God be blessed with the angel that he has just received.

Survivors include:

1 Son: Erik Bryant and wife Sarah of Franklin, NC

Her Mother: Addie Jo Solomon Courson of Broxton, GA

1 Grandchild: Madelyn Bryant of Franklin, NC

1 Sister: Wanda Kay Graham of Broxton, GA

1 Niece, 1 Nephew, Many Cousins and Friends

Memorialization will be by cremation.

A memorial service will be held later.

Ricketson Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

“ I'll always remember Judy for her great sense of humor, she could certainly make me laugh but my best memory of her was when she came to my house when I was a little girl and my dog was sick and we didn't have the money for a vet so she took the dog to the vet and paid for it so I'll always remember her for her kindness ❤️
