“ Sending my deepest condolences to her family and children. My Aunt Patricia Williams was her mother in law & loved Judy & her children so very much. I remember the first time I met July as a very young girl. She came to visit Atlanta in the early 80's & met what would become her future husbands family. I recall how very pretty, sweet & quiet she was. It didn't take long until my cousin Andy was completely smitten with her then soon after I heard they were marrying & he moved down to south Georgia. I never got to see her again, but always heard how much my Aunt & Uncle loved them & their grandchildren. Conversations in our family always included Judy & the kids & all the fun things they were doing together. My Aunt & Uncle spent weekends at their family farm in Axson every chance they could & always stood by Judy even after she Andy parted ways. I'm certain they are all having a celebration having reunited in heaven & are most likely talking about college football & what they wanna cook for supper...probably some homemade peach pies!! I can't help but feel her life was cut way too short. Love to all.
