“ My friend just slipped away without a goodbye, but that did not mean she didn't love you or want you to know how sick she was, it was just a plan between her and God that he send Angels from Glory to escort her to the promised land! As I had talked to her just a few days before at Wal-Mart she told me how tired she was of being sick and not being able to do the things she used to do! She asked me to take her to the doctor and we agreed between the both of us we might could stay out of jail on the journey to Tifton! We laughed as we always did and she agreed to call before the appointment and she waited patiently for that sister she loved so well, she made the comment, " Barbara is so slow but she don't even know it! (another laugh) we never found the car in the parking lot (another good one) so I asked if I should wait and she said, "no, I will just get in somebody else car and cool off so I left laughing all the way home. Karen I loved you lady and I knew things you may not have told anyone else but when God calls me home" will you give a big wave and ask if you can come meet me by the river but make sure you bring a boat! I will miss you but I long for the famous HOMECOMING for those who have followed Christ!

“ I remember Karon from years ago when I was a Tupperware Lady. Karon attended many of my parties. It was always a pleasure to have her presence. She was always a kind lady. I know she will b missed. RIP KARON!!

Renee - I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. May God be with u and the family. May he wrap you in his arms and comfort you at this difficult time. Please know that others do care. I remember you, too. I think you were going to school in Valdosta at the time.
Sending Hugs and Prayers!
