“ I can not believe we have to say goodbye so soon. We where more like sisters than cousins. I think I spent more time at your house than mine. I will cherish all the memories we made around the juke box in the living room singing and dancing. Learning to swim and that I could not dive no matter how many days you spent trying to teach me. You are loved! You are truly missed! Our hearts are broken! But I know uncle Donnie needed his little girl to fish a little by the river with Bigma. I pray you have found peace. RIP Sis. You will not be forgotten.

*I am so very sorry to hear of your loss. Michelle was at a West Green Elementary when our sons were there and I remember her as a pretty and cute little blue eyed girl with curls.
So sorry. God blessed you with her. So thankful for all of His blessings!*
