“ I am so very sorry to hear of Mrs. Linda's passing. Linda was my Mama and Daddy's neighbor from the time they built their house in 1979. Linda and Bill were the sweetest neighbors and best of friends to them. After my Dad passed away Linda or Bill would come over and check on Mama and were always bringing her a plate of whatever delicious meal she had prepared. She continued this up until my Mom passed away 2 years ago. My prayers are with her family that she loved dearly.

“ Aunt Linda was tiny but mighty. She was a ball of energy- the best energy- and she always knew how to make you feel so loved and special. She called Hazel “her baby” and she loved “her baby” so good. I’m so glad I got to witness the love she had for my baby.
