“ If you knew Linda, you loved her from her infectious smile and bright eyes! I met Linda many years ago as she wanted to me to help her with playing piano. Even then she missed her parents and spoke of them often. She was looking forward to being with them again in her eternal home of heaven!

“ Linda was a very sweet lady that everyone loved. I've known her family for many years as daddy was the pastor of Harrell Grove many years ago. Praying for the family and she will be missed but has made it to her final home with her parents.

“ Linda was one of my fathers (Leo Vickers) favorite relatives. He always spoke well of her and they stayed in touch although they lived far apart. One of his last vacations was when we drove from NY to visit her in Douglas. I hope he greeted you at the gates of heaven.

“ So sorry to hear about the passing of Miss Linda. She was a fine lady, always had a smile on unless something was really wrong. Everyone I know loved Miss Linda. I knew her ever since I was old enough to know anyone. She had some fine parents that loved her very much. Heaven has gained another angle.
