

Lowell Vickers

March 19, 1936 - June 14, 2013

Mr. Lowell Thomas Vickers, age 77, of Douglas passed away Friday evening, June 14, 2013, at the Coffee Regional Medical Center, following an extended illness. Mr. Vickers, a native of Coffee County, was a Cabinet Maker and a Farmer. He was the son of the late Elisha Vickers, Sr. and the late Emma Grace Adams Vickers. He was also preceded in death by a brother, Jack Dempsey Vickers. He was a U. S. Army Veteran, having served in Germany. Mr. Vickers was a member of the Carver Baptist Church. Survivors include: Children: Lowell (Grace) Vickers, Jr., and Beth Lakey, both of Amarillo, Texas.; Teresa (Dino) Ferrari of Valdosta, Ga.; Brother: Elisha (Jo Ann) Vickers, Jr. of Douglas, Ga.; Sister: Ann V. Grantham of Douglas, Ga.; A number of Grandchildren. Several Nieces, Nephews, Friends, and Other Relatives. Funeral Services were held Tuesday morning, June 18, 2013, at 11:00 A. M., at the Carver Baptist Church, with Rev. Philip Corbean and Rev. Gregory Pope officiating. The Interment followed in the Carver Cemetery. Active pallbearers were: Warren Vickers, Mark Grantham, Brad Mercer, Cory Harrell, Doug Shook, and Jared Vickers. Members of the Senior Saints Sunday School Class served as Honorary pallbearers. Special Musical Selections, "Peace In The Valley", and "Amazing Grace", were presented as Congregational Hymns, led by David McDonald, with Patricia Anderson, at the Piano. "Pre-Lude" and "Post-Lude" soft hymns were rendered by the Pianist, Patricia Anderson. Ricketson Funeral Home was in charge of the Arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Lowell Vickers

November 08, 2022 at 06:41 PM

“ Never enough time to say goodbye. Your daughter,

Teresa Ferrari - June 16, 2013 at 12:00 AM