“ Even though the years have seen us live far apart there has always been a special place for you deep inside my heart. A childhood friend filled with joy and positive laughter. RIP dear Mary, let God keep you in his arms. Love you always.

“ I'm sorry to learn of Mary's passing. Years ago we both worked at Elixir in different departments. She was always a hard worker and always smiling.

“ I got to meet Mary when she had a car accident trying to get to a doctor's appt in Valdosta. Her friend Vicki told me that Mary needed to get to the doctor's office so I went and met her. We chatted and I got her to her appt. Later when she was at SGMC for surgery, I visited with her many of the days because I knew family was all out of town. She always had a smile when I popped my head in the door. I was so sad to hear of her death, but I know she had fought a hard battle. I'm praying for family and friends left behind. God will be your comfort.
