“ We are so sad with the news that Elizabeth has finished the course. Though we were not, it always seemed we were closely related. She has always been family to us. Let us take courage realizing the dark earthly future before us, she will not endure. Heaven has no disappointments.

“ We're sending our love and our prayers to Uncle Stanford, Ferrell, Lyndi, her Grandsons, and the entire family. I know she's going to be missed so much by so many, but I'm especially going to miss her. She was so sweet and thoughtful every time we stayed with her and Uncle Stanford; always so caring. Even though we all know she's in a much better place, it still doesn't make the pain & grief of not seeing her anymore here with us any easier. We Love Ya'll and just know we're thinking of you all during this very difficult time.
