“ Mrs. Maudelle was a sweet Christian lady. I meet Mrs. Maudelle when taking my mom, Marie Walls to West Green Baptist Church. Mrs. Maudelle and my Mom were friends who talked on the phone often and sent each other cards of inspiration. Mrs. Maudelle was a precious lady and we send our sincere condolences to her family.

“ Maudelle was the Queen Mother of kindergarten in Coffee County. She was an awesome teacher. The thing that I remember most about Maudelle was that she was always involved in what what going on the life of the child outside of the classroom. Therefore, she could understand the child better and reach them with their academics. May God's Grace envelop each of you and bring you Peace!

“ Maudelle West Green will never be the same without you here among us, but I know you are Dancing in the Sky praising Jesus your Lord and Saviour. I've never known a more dedicated person to their faith than you. Your children were blessed to call you their mama.

“ *Maudelle has touched the lives of hundreds of kindergarden children and peer teachers. I am so very proud to be one of those people.
May God wrap his arms around her family just like she has wrapped her arms around so many children.
Sending hugs and strength waves as you work through your grief.
