“ Sorry for your loss, she loved her kids dearly and always talked about her grandkids and you could see the love in her face. I am so thankful God put her in our lives especially my moms, she was definitely a God send to many. I know when she got to Heaven she was over joyed to see her mom and I'm sure she found her second mom also. May God continue to comfort the family as they wait to be reunited.

“ Paulette, you shared your heart and your friendship..your thoughts..your ambitions..your joy and laughter and you trusted me with your tears. We laughed together, joked together, sat around your family's holiday table together, sharing your most special moments with us like family. To my husband and I, you are family. We journeyed to SE Georgia with nothing but two old cars filled with meager possessions and lived with little social interaction till we met you. We are forever grateful to have known such a wonderful sister and faithful friend. And I can believe you and Yapper are taking the grandest of tours in your mansion there in Heaven! How your eyes lit up at the mention of His name! What life you sowed into the hearts of those in your circle of influence will indeed break forth into a great harvest for Jesus! You did nothing for Him in vain. It will grow like the majestic cedars of Lebanon! Praise God for the rich legacy you leave with us! Hugs, sweetie!
