“ My deepest Condolences to the entire Adams Family. Randy was a Great Man, friend and Brother to me for years and years. I will miss him greatly as everyone else that knew him. He would always help keep my farm up, fix my tractors, cut and plant the fields . I could tell many many stories we shared together over the years as children riding our horses all day on those long red clay roads and hunting. Such a good happy guy . Fly high my Friend and God Bless. Tracy Smith

“ Randy was one of those that when he came to know the Lord for salvation, everyone knew it! He was blessed with a beautiful singing voice and used his talents in the service of his Lord and maker. Uncle Randy, you're going to be sorely missed here but I look forward to the time we meet again. God bless Charlene and the family - all of us!
