In his younger days he enjoyed hunting and fishing with his son-in-law. As Mr. Tom grew older he found enjoyment in his vegetable garden. His neighbors and friends were often times recipients of the bounty from his garden. He also found great pleasure in time spent with his family. He loved his grandbabies and great grandbabies and created many memories that they will cherish for years to come.

Mr. Tom leaves behind 2 daughters: Angela White and husband, Bill, of Ocala, Florida, and Kimberly Roberts and husband, James, of Canton, Georgia; Grandchildren: Alexandra Ausdemore and husband, Michael, of Ocala,
