“ We played together in a great band must've been late 70's. Troy was a fabulous singer and drummer. We all loved him dearly. Here's a picture at You Knight Out in Waycross.

“ I was a teenager when I met Troy and his brother Harry and the rest of the band, at 15 I thought he was so goodlooking but then so did all the other girls that went to hear him play, we always stayed til it was over and then some weekends we could talk our parents into taking us to "Red Bluff" where they would also sing and have us girls kicking high! i would go home and just dream all night that he 'swept me off my feet'"believe me I wasn't the only one but I bet I might be the only one that still remembered 50 years later!Just wanted you to know you were a special person so I pray God will rest you by the peaceful waters!
