“ Wilma was a volunteer with the Coffee Regional Medical Center Auxiliary for 13 1/2 years, serving 2309 hours greeting and helping patients, families, and visitors at the Front Information Desk with her friendly smile. We all loved her and appreciated her dedicated, selfless service for others. On behalf of the CRMC Auxililary and Employees, we offer our deepest sympathy to Wilma's family and loved ones. God bless you all.

“ My condolences to the McCook family. May it help you to know that God will get rid of sickness forever, never to return as Isaiah 33:24 says: No resident will say: "I am sick" so soon we want worry about losing our loved ones to death because of it, and God will get rid of death, itself it too will never return. Please find some comfort from these few words of truth, in your difficult days ahead.
